SECTION 1 INTRODUCTION

Argyll & Bute's Education Vision:

Our aspiration is to ensure that Argyll and Bute is the best place in Scotland for our children to grow up. Our vision is that together we will realise ambition, excellence and equality for all. Our vision sends a signal about the importance we attach to education is simple in message and is recognised by everyone. This is best captured As:

The Education vision is underpinned by our values: respect, openness and fairness. This vision is being delivered for all our children through the following 6 key objectives.

We will:

- Raise educational attainment and achievement for all;
- Use performance information to secure improvement for children and young people;
- Ensure children have the best start in life and are ready to succeed;
- Equip young people to secure and sustain positive destinations and achieve success in life;
- Ensure high quality partnership working and community engagement, and
- Strengthen leadership at all levels.

Armed Forces Context within Helensburgh and Lomond

Her Majesty's Naval Base (HMNB) Clyde, at Faslane, is a major local employer for both civilian and Service personnel and has a direct impact on the number of Service children currently enrolled within Helensburgh and Lomond Schools.

HMNB Clyde is home to the United Kingdom's Strategic Nuclear Deterrent and the Astute Class submarines. However it is also the base port for the First Mine Countermeasure Squadron (MCM1), the Faslane Patrol Boat Squadron (FPBS), the Royal Marine's 43 Commando Fleet Protection Group and the Northern Diving Group (NDG). It also has significant numbers of Armed Forces personnel involved in training, engineering support, personnel support, administration and medical roles.

The ships, submarines and support organisations and their differing roles means that there is a constant cycle of, often unpredictable, deployment patterns. Depending upon the particular role being conducted, there can be times when contact between Service personnel and their families is extremely limited, often for extended periods.

Our Service children and young people often experience situations and challenges that their civilian counterparts may not. Particularly coping without a parent during deployments can have an impact upon children from Armed Forces families. Mobility within the Services may also mean that children change schools and geographical locations more frequently, adding extra pressures.

Education, from early years through to higher education, can provide the stability to help children and young people through these times.

SECTION 2

SERVICE FAMILY LIAISON

Teaching Staff

Teaching staff in Helensburgh and Lomond are aware of the issues faced by children from Armed Forces through training opportunities and their close links to the community.

Staff will support your child in their new learning community, help them settle in, ensure that they continue to learn and also identify and support pupils who have gaps in their learning that have arisen from moving between different education systems. Staff will provide pastoral and emotional support to pupils who may be affected by their parent's deployment.

Service Pupil Advisor

The Service Pupil Advisor is a unique role created by Argyll and Bute Council to provide advice and support for the large numbers of Armed Forces children in the Helensburgh and Lomond area. This temporary post is funded by the MOD Education Support Fund.

Their role is to act as a key contact and point of reference for Armed Forces families and to co-ordinate additional support for service children with a particular focus on gaps in learning as a result of deployment and/or mobility. They would be happy to meet with families who feel they need extra support or just offer a listening ear.

They are also happy to discuss the following services:-

Forces and Me Groups in various schools
Professional Learning Community Meetings
Seasons for Growth
Story Sacks

INFORMATION ABOUT SCHOOLS IN HELENSBURGH AND LOMOND

Overview of Education provision in Helensburgh and Lomond

Scotland's Education System provides a curriculum for children aged 3 – 18.

In Scotland, Local Authorities have had a duty to secure a funded part-time early learning and childcare place for every 3 and 4 year old whose parents wish it. You are entitled to a funded part-time place for your child, broadly speaking, from the beginning of the school term starting after their third birthday.

Children begin primary school at the starting age of 4-5 years old. Your child will be placed automatically into Primary 1 in August if his or her fifth birthday falls between 1 March of that year and the last day of February the following year.

Children normally transfer to secondary school after the Primary 7 stage (see table below):

Starting Age	Provision	Stage

3-4	Pre-5 unit	Early Years
4-5	Primary	Primary 1
5-6	Primary	Primary 2

Choosing a school other than your catchment school

In Scotland you have the right to decide the catchment school is not the school you wish to send your child to; this is known as a placing request. The council has a duty to grant such a request wherever possible. However, the size of the school, the current roll and number of children who already live in the catchment area and other factors will affect the council's ability to grant a placing request.

Note, if a placing request is granted, your child will not be entitled to a free transport. It is the responsibility of the parent/carer to transport their child to school and back.

For more information regarding this, please visit Argyll & Bute Council's website, click on the link 'Schools, Education and Learning', then click on the 'Register your child for school' link.

How to enrol your child in a school

When deciding on the school you prefer, here are some important things to keep in mind.

- Arrange to visit the school and speak to the Head Teacher. Schools make special arrangements to welcome visitors and it is advisable to find out what these arrangements are. A telephone call to make an appointment always helps. All our schools in Helensburgh and Lomond have a website; details of this are located later in this section.
- If you decide you want to know about other schools before you make up your mind, try to arrange a visit by telephone or by email/letter, to the schools you are considering. You will find all details of local schools later in this section.
- You may also wish to take into account when choosing a school the environmental impact of how your child would travel there each day, if they are not eligible for free school transport. This may include exploring what options there are for travelling to the school such as walking or cycling. A helpful publication produced by Parentzone is the document 'Choosing a school – a guide for parents' can be found at <https://education.gov.scot/parentzone/my-school/>

16+ Learning Choices

16+ Learning Choices is a guaranteed offer of a place in post-16 learning for every young person who wants it. 16+ Learning Choices ensures that there is partnership working with Skills Development Scotland, Local Authorities, Schools, Jobcentre Plus, Colleges and other providers of learning and support to ensure all young people in Scotland are supported into positive and sustained destinations.

Assessment

Scotland has introduced a new assessment framework and new qualifications that best support and reflect children's learning. This will raise standards of achievement, improve learning experiences and develop skills for learning, life and work.

What does assessment cover?

- The ways teachers support and assess children's learning and monitor progress.
- Reporting to parents – in writing and discussions to help them understand their child's progress and what parents can do to help their child's learning.
- Formal recognition of learners' achievements through profiles and qualifications.

What and how will teachers assess?

Teachers carry out ongoing assessment to see what children know, understand and are able to do. Teachers assess in a number of ways, such as watching pupils carry out tasks like practical investigations and providing written responses to a report or project.

SECTION 5

THE CURRICULUM, ASSESSMENT AND QUALIFICATIONS

When will teachers assess a child's learning?

Assessment will take place throughout the school year. Parents are key partners in learning, and assessment gives them a chance to be involved in understanding, reviewing and planning next steps. Parents can discuss any concerns or questions about their child's learning with the school.

How will assessment be reported?

Parents will receive information on their child's progress. This information may be in the form of an annual written report or more regular written or oral reports. Regardless of the format the report will provide clear, positive and constructive feedback about children's learning and their progress against national standards and expectations.

What are profiles?

All children and young people will have their achievements and progress formally recorded. At Primary 7 and S3, a 'profile' is created. The profile confirms how they are doing, records their achievements and progress against national standards and expectations, noting any awards. It records achievement in literacy and numeracy. It also contains a learner statement – their thoughts on their own achievements.

Qualifications

Qualifications in Scotland have changed. New qualifications will continue developing learners' knowledge and understanding and will have more of a focus on developing skills. The new qualifications recognise that different learners perform at their best in different ways and are designed to reward learners for their skills in performance based activities as well as in academic tasks.

16-17	Secondary – Senior Phase S6	Secondary – (Upper Sixth) Year 13	Secondary Year 14

It is important to note from this chart, that there are significant differences between Scotland and England/Northern Ireland.

For example, children in England and Northern Ireland attend Primary School at an earlier age than children in Scotland. This may mean your child may return to Nursery Education if you move to Scotland when your child is aged 4-5.

Furthermore, children in England and Northern Ireland attend Secondary School at the starting age of 10-11, whereas children in Scotland attend Primary 7 at the starting age of 10-11. This may mean your child is placed in Primary Education if you move to Scotland when your child has already started, or is due to start Secondary School in England. This in no way affects their academic progress, as is illustrated in the table above, and prior learning is taken into account.

If you have concerns about the stage of schooling your child will enter into when moving to our area, our Head Teachers will be happy to discuss these concerns with you.

SECTION 6

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

All staff within the education service have a responsibility for addressing additional support needs. A child or young person with additional support needs is defined under the terms of the Education (Additional Support for Learning) (Scotland) Acts 2004 and 2009.

Children or young people may require additional support for a variety of reasons, either for short periods of time or throughout their education. Children with additional support needs may include those who:

- have motor or sensory impairments;
- are being bullied;
- are particularly able or talented;
- have experienced a bereavement;
- have a learning difficulty;
- are living with parents who are abusing substances;
- are living with parents who have mental health problems;
- have English as a second language;
- are not attending school regularly;
- have emotional or social difficulties (these may be a result of parental deployment);
- moving home frequently;
- are on the child protection register, and
- are young carers.

It is not possible to list all the reasons because it will always depend on the individual child.

What is important is that many circumstances may affect children's ability to learn. Support may need to come from health, social work or certain voluntary organisations, as well as from education. Professionals with different areas of expertise should all work together to make sure any support your child gets is properly tailored to their individual needs. Your child's needs may last a short time, and the problem may be resolved easily. Or their needs might be very complex, and they may require additional support for a number of years.

It is most helpful to discuss any questions, issues or concerns about the provision for additional support needs with the Head Teacher in the first instance.

Enquire

Enquire is the Scottish Advice Service for additional support for learning. They have produced leaflet 'A Parent's Guide to Additional Support for Learning' which can be accessed electronically via their website. Visit <https://enquire.org.uk/enquire-resources/additional-support-for-learning-a-guide-for-parents-and-carers/> for details.

SECTION 6

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

Getting it Right for Every Child (GIRFEC)

Getting it right for every child (known as GIRFEC) is the national approach in Scotland intended to make sure that all the people who support your child work together seamlessly to give you and your child the right help at the right time.

What does GIRFEC mean for me and my child?

Whenever your child needs help or support, GIRFEC aims to make sure that both you and your child:

- feel confident about the help being given;
- understand what is happening and why;
- are listened to carefully, with your wishes heard and understood;
- are appropriately involved in discussions and decisions that affect you;
- can rely on appropriate help being available as soon as possible, and
- experience a fair and co-ordinated response from staff.

Important elements of GIRFEC are:

- By 2016 every child and young person aged 0-18 will have a named person - someone that you or your child can contact whenever you have any concerns or problems. In Argyll & Bute every young person now has a named person. From birth to starting school, this is the Health Visitor. In Primary Schools, this will be the Head Teacher or Depute Head. In Secondary Schools, this will be the Guidance/Pastoral Teacher.
- If at any time your child needs support from people in different professions and organisations (for example health and social work) as well as school staff, someone called a lead professional will be appointed to ensure that all the people supporting your child work well together.

SECTION 6

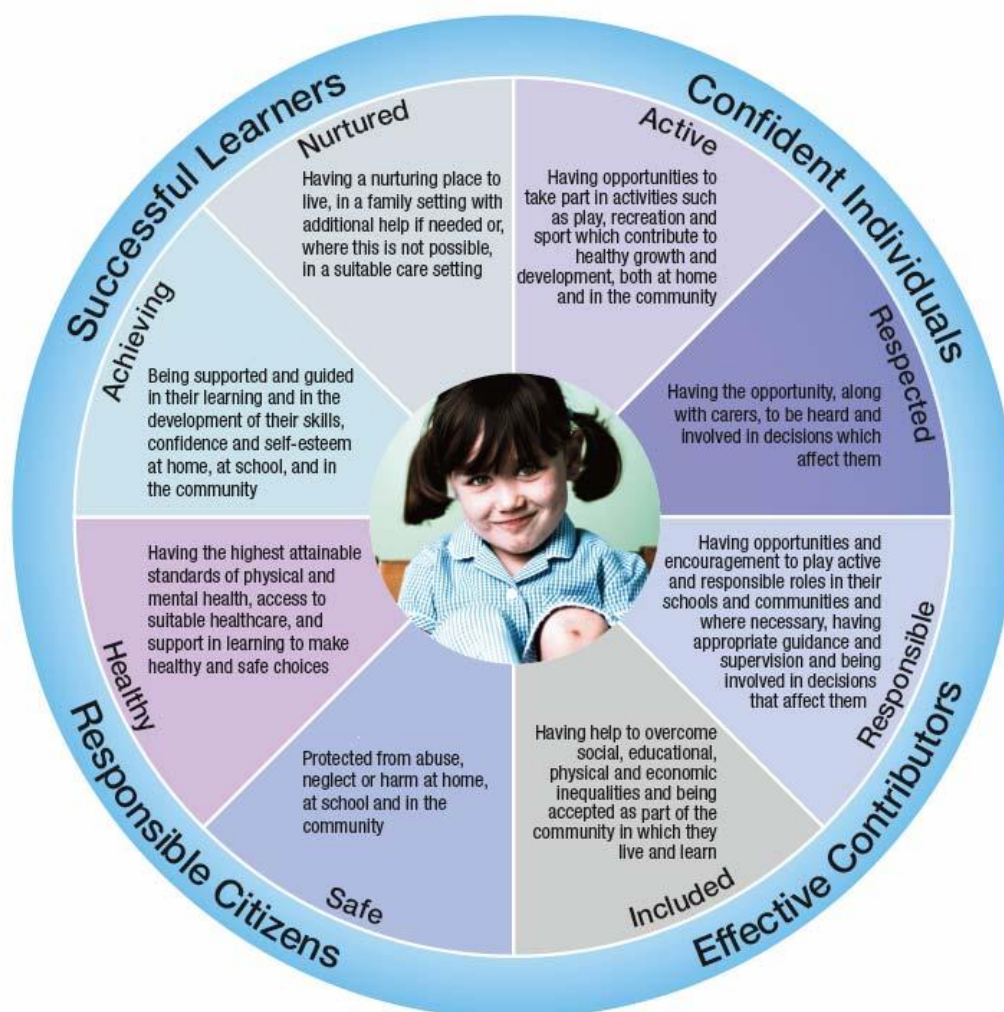

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

GIRFEC is about wellbeing

GIRFEC focuses on eight areas of wellbeing that are important for your child to grow and develop to reach their full potential. This is often referred to as SHANARRI. The eight areas are

- Safe.
- Healthy.
- Achieving.
- Nurtured.
- Active.
- Respected.
- Responsible.
- Included.

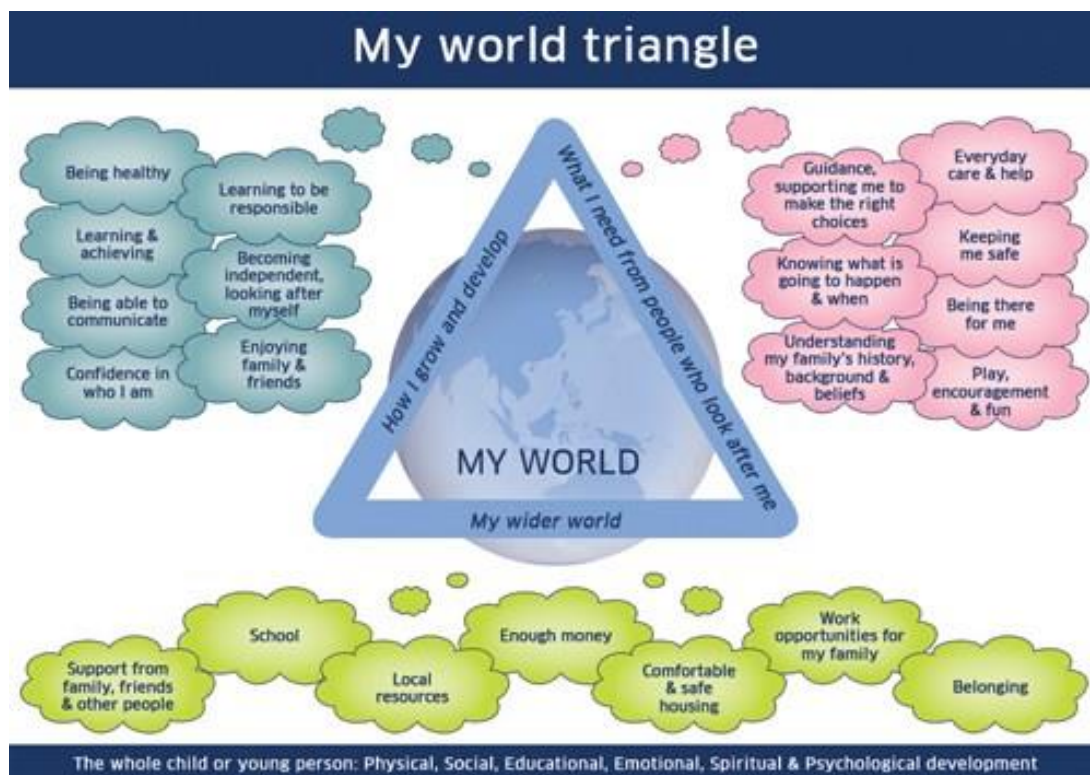

These areas are illustrated below:

Staff will use this wellbeing wheel to assess your child's wellbeing across all eight areas, and to identify what is good in a child's life and whether there are any areas where support is needed.

SECTION 6

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

Teaching staff will also use the 'My World Triangle' to understand a child or young person as a whole and to get a better picture of their needs.

The GIRFEC Planning Process

Any child who needs additional support will have a Universal Child's Plan. This is a document that uses specific tools to consider important information about a child or young person. The Universal Child's Plan records short and long term outcomes as well as actions need to be carried out to make these outcomes happen. This means help or support is co-ordinated and everyone is clear about who is doing what.

The Universal Child's Plan is the document used by every service involved in planning support for children and young people. The information that goes into a Universal Child's Plan is agreed at a Child's Plan meeting in which parents and children must be included.

SECTION 6

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

Children and Young People Act

The Children and Young People \(Scotland\) Act 2014 takes forward the Getting it right for every child approach to ensure that:

- all children and young people from birth to 18 years old have access to a Named Person;
- a single planning process is put in place to support those children who require it;
- a definition of wellbeing exists in legislation, and
- public bodies have a duty to co-ordinate the planning, design and delivery of services for children and young people, with a focus on improving wellbeing outcomes, and to report collectively on how they are improving those outcomes.

Argyll & Bute's Educational Psychology Service

The role of the Educational Psychology service is to promote the wellbeing and development of all children and young people using the knowledge and evidence base of child psychology. Educational Psychologists have specialist knowledge of child psychology, development and education. They use this knowledge to work alongside teachers and others to help children and young people succeed in education and beyond.

The type of service your family will receive from Argyll and Bute's Educational Psychology Service will differ from services received in other parts of Britain. Scotland does not have a 'statementing' procedure but operates the wholly inclusive policy of GIRFEC (see above).

Schools and nurseries have at least one named psychologist who is responsible for meeting the psychological needs of all their pupils. If you know which school your child is to attend, you can find the name of the responsible psychologist/s from the Head Teacher, Manager or on our Educational Psychology Website www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/education-and-learning/educational-psychology

Where your child is arriving in the area with ongoing psychological assessment or support issues, and you are seeking continuity of support throughout your child's transition, you should inform the Head Teacher. If this is not possible, you may contact Head Office for have an informal discussion with Karen Miller (Administrator) or Roslyn Redpath (Principal Psychologist). Contact details are as follows:

Argyll House,
Alexandra Parade,
Dunoon,
PA23 8AJ.
Tel 01369 708537

SECTION 6

ADDITIONAL SUPPORT NEEDS

If new difficulties arise for your child once you have settled in the local area, the Head Teacher (Primary Schools and Nurseries) or Principal of Support for Learning (Secondary Schools) will normally begin the process of Staged Intervention.

In this process, at the first stage, the school works alongside education colleagues to rectify any difficulties within the school context. If difficulties persist, the school will move to the second stage and may recruit additional specialist support or outside agencies. If the difficulties do not respond to any of these interventions, the school may recommend moving to the third stage and discuss a referral to Educational Psychology with you.

'Information for Parents' and 'Information for Children and Young People' leaflets that explain the process of referral to Educational Psychology can be obtained by contacting Head Office at the above address/telephone number.

SECTION 7

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

At what age do children in Scotland start school?

Your child will be placed automatically into a school in August if his or her fifth birthday falls between 1 March of that year and the last day of February of the following year.

How do I enrol my child in a school?

You should contact your local catchment school (details can be found in Section 3 of this leaflet.)

Is there any help with childcare costs in Scotland?

Parents of eligible children usually register online each January for the academic year ahead, or for later applications, directly at their preferred nursery. (Details can be found in Section 4 of this booklet.) Note that some two year olds will be eligible for this entitlement.

How will the teachers know where to start with my child?

We will ask the previous school for information about your child's previous learning and attainment and will review this carefully. We will also talk to your child and you about your thoughts and ideas and involve you in making decisions about next steps. We will also carry out assessments to gather information about your child's core skills in literacy and numeracy to ensure that we can develop these properly.

Teachers in Argyll & Bute are aware of the differences between curriculums in the UK, are capable of identifying any gaps in learning, and will welcome and support your child to settle into their new school.

What are the dates for school holidays?

These can be found on our website www.argyll-bute.gov.uk by clicking the link to 'Schools, Education and Learning.'

Where can I buy the school uniform?

Details regarding school uniform can be found on the school's website or by contacting the school directly (see Section 3 for details.)

SECTION 7

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Is there any help with school meals and the cost of uniform in Scotland?

In Scotland all pupils in Primary 1-3 are entitled to a free school meal. Parents do not have to register for this; all pupils will receive this meal automatically.

Your child may qualify for free school meals beyond Primary 3 if you are in receipt of certain benefits, please contact the relevant school (during term time). You can apply for free school meals at www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/education-and-learning/school-meals

School Clothing Grants are available if you are in receipt of certain benefits. You can find out more by visiting <https://www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/education-and-learning/free-school-meals>

Is there any help for children who stay on at school?

Financial assistance in the form of an Education Maintenance Allowance is available if you are 16 to 19 years old and attend a school or college in Argyll & Bute and come from a low household income. Find out more by visiting www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/education-and-learning/education-maintenance-allowance

Will my child's school receive a Pupil Premium payment?

The Pupil Premium Scheme which operates in England does not apply in Scotland. However, since 2011 Argyll and Bute Council have been accessing the MOD Education Support Fund, to provide extra support and resources for our children from Armed Forces families in schools. For example, additional teaching staff have been employed in schools in Helensburgh and Lomond from this funding. Resources and training to support emotional wellbeing and numeracy such as 'Seasons for Growth' and 'Maths Recovery' have been funded using the MOD Education Support Fund. The funding also allows for continuous training opportunities for staff in Helensburgh and Lomond to share practice and support colleagues who work with children from Armed Forces families.

When a GIRFEC plan is being made, is the fact that a child is a service child taken into consideration?

Universal Children's Plans are created using GIRFEC (Getting it Right for Every Child) methodology and all factors that affect a young person are taken into consideration at the assessment stage. This may include being a young person in a service or veteran family – where this information is disclosed to us by the parent/carer. Further details regarding GIRFEC can be found in Section 6 of this booklet, or our website page can give you more information: www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/girfec

SECTION 7

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What would happen in Argyll & Bute if a service family came to the area with a half-completed EHC or Statement as known by in England?

All information shared by previous schools regarding a young person moving into Argyll and Bute is taken into consideration when assessing their needs. Young people are assessed within the environment of their new school and any appropriate additional assessment needed is requested by the school.

What is the procedure in place in Argyll & Bute if a service family were moving to the area and needed to place their child in a school, however they did not at that point have an address?

The procedure for any family moving into the area without having a current address in the area is that a placing request is made to the school of their choice. This will then be considered following the process outlined on our website. You can view this process at www.argyll-bute.gov.uk/education-and-learning/placing-your-child-school

HELP US TO PROVIDE FOR YOUR CHILDREN IN OUR SCHOOLS

It is important to pass on as much information about your child as possible to their school. You should include:

- Relevant information about the family – number of children in family, long term deployments.
- A list of schools your child has attended.
- Examples of your child's work.
- Information about what your child is good at or enjoys doing.
- Information about your child's activities and interests.
- Achievements.
- Their last school report.
- Details of any difficulties your child has had at school, e.g., settling in, additional support needs.
- Information about medical conditions and dietary needs.
- Any National Curriculum or other test results.

In Section 9 of this pack, there are details of a Moving Schools Pack created by CEAS which supports you in keeping a record of the above.

Identification to school of a parent's service status in the Armed Forces

Parents/carers within the Armed Forces (Regular, Reserve and Veterans) are encouraged to ensure that the Head Teacher of their child's school is aware of their service status so that the school is able to work in partnership to provide informed support if and when it is needed.

Why is this important?

The health and wellbeing of all children is a key focus of education in Scotland. Pupils are encouraged to learn, perform and work towards achieving their own potential.

How to let the school know that your child is part of an Armed Forces family?

School registration forms will offer a section where you can indicate that your child is part of an Armed Forces family.

Schools need to know so that support can be provided in partnership with your family

Children and young people from Armed Forces families often experience numerous changes in their lives which means that they may need additional support – albeit for a short time – to help them cope with the effects of these changes.

SECTION 8

HELP US TO PROVIDE FOR YOUR CHILDREN IN OUR SCHOOLS

Support provided by the school might relate to:

- Mobility.
- Deployment.
- Periods of separation due to training, deployment, posting, assignment.
- Interrupted learning due to mobility.
- Moving from one school to another at times throughout the year.
- Increased levels of anxiety or worry.
- Adjusting to a new school community.
- Leaving friends and peer groups.
- Making new friends.
- Learning new educational systems, the language and setting.

Transitions can have a big impact on children's learning and wellbeing and it is important that parents are well informed to help them support their children as they move onto different stages of learning. Transitions can include moving to primary school from nursery, moving from primary to secondary school, moving to the senior phase of Curriculum for Excellence and then post-school learning, training or work. Transitions also include any changes in a pupil's learning journey, for example when a pupil changes school or when learning is interrupted.

Further information for supporting your child at school for Armed Forces families can be found at <https://www.adesscot/ForcesChildren/>

CEAS MOVING SCHOOLS PACK

Overview of The Children's Education Advisory Service (CEAS)

Children's Education Advisory Service (CEAS) is a tri-service organisation funded by the MOD. It was established to provide information and support to Service families and eligible MOD civilians on all aspects of the education of their children in the UK and overseas.

When children move frequently from one school to another or between different educational systems obtaining appropriate provision can be complex.

CEAS provides information and advice as well as supporting parents at meetings with schools, local authorities, at tribunal etc.

Contact CEAS

The CEAS Helpline is manned from 8.30am to 3.30pm, Monday to Friday. At other times, or when the helpline is busy, messages can be left on the answer machine or sent via email. Please ensure that your name, the name and date of birth of the child (if appropriate) and your contact details are left slowly and clearly.
